What's changed?

Monday-Saturday early morning first few buses chopped back, along with the 18.05 from City Centre (Whitehall Street) which are withdrawn. Otherwise, the timetable is now much-improved, with buses usually every 30 minutes throughout the main part of the day. Why is this different? Well, the current morning and afternoon services currently have large gaps on schooldays, where buses went off to do different services. These gaps have now been filled. There is also a new 20.10 Monday-Saturday bus from Ninewells Hospital to Balunie Avenue/Baldovie Road, to allow visitors to Ninewells Hospital to return after evening visiting time. Daytime service also tweaked by a few minutes to create a bus every 15 minutes from City Centre (Whitehall Street) to Tullideph Road, Ancrum Road, Charleston Drive – also see new Service 204/204A. Buses will now run off Macalpine Road at Lidl via Birkdale Place, Dalmahoy Drive, and now the full length of Laird Street, adding up to five minutes but reinstating many direct links for St Mary's residents. Buses will no longer run into Charleston – instead, Service 26 will run direct from Arran Drive to South Road. Additionally, two morning 26's will be renumbered 26C and divert via Strathern Road (for Gardyne College) into Broughty Ferry and Claypotts Road, rather than Douglas. Two afternoon 26's will also be 26C's, and divert at Balgillo Road via Ballinard Road and Strathern Road
