PASSENGER INFORMATION

This publication details the changes to local bus services in Angus over the Christmas and New Year period 2010/2011, as notified by operators to Angus Council's transport team.

Passengers requiring clarification as to whether their local bus service is running over the festive period should contact the relevant bus company.

Local bus service timetables can be found on the public transport pages on Angus Council's website at www.angus.gov.uk/transport.

The Traveline Scotland call centre is open 24 hours every day including Christmas Day and New Year's Day. Passengers using the Traveline website to plan journeys should note the instructions on the website for planning journeys over the festive period.
